RE: Bush V. McDonough
Doc # 1:04-CV-12122-JLT

Dear Mr Anastas:

I am aware you, the Court are making a thorough compilation of all documents, and transcripts available in this case for review.

Here are a few Exhibits you may not be aware of that are substantial to a complete review.

EX. A-1, 2, 3 are letters from the Judicial Conduct Commission explaining their investigation which a determination of Judge Ball's ruling was to be forthcoming within 90 days and after several attempts to secure the report I am still being denied after over 8 mos.

I expect you will be able to procure the report.

EX-B-1,2 are letters from the Bar Council detailing a review of my complaint of the subversive actions and furtive omissions, several Violations of Mass. Rules of Professional Conduct which were accompanied by several exhibits of documentary and exspanatory evidence to corroborate my claims; as it states that in accordance with S.J.C Rules, a report would be confidential to me. I expect you would also be able to obtain this information.

Exhibit C-1 is a copy of my Habeas Corpus Motion to the State Court docketed on June 24, 2004 which was ignored along with two successive motions to Recognize and Compell.

Dear Mr. Bush:

We have received your complaint against Judge Carol S. Ball. A careful reading of your complaint indicates that you are asking the Commission to review the judge's decisions for error based on the merits of the case. That is the type of review that only appellate courts can give. The Commission on Judicial Conduct is not allowed to review any judge's decisions for error. Since this complaint does not fall within our jurisdiction, it has not been docketed.

Sincerely,

Re: Complaint Number 2004-25

Dear Mr. Bush:

You were informed in a March 8, 2004 letter that it first had to be determined whether good cause existed to investigate your complaint. We now realize that that determination is not necessary. Your complaint will now be investigated. You will be informed of the disposition.

Sincerely,
